DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-3 and 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
3. Claims 1 and 8 contain improper Markush language. When the last conjunction is "and", the required Markush language is "selected from the group consisting of". Always. Without exception.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
5. Claims 1-3 and 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Wessling 4,929,388, Tajima et al. 5,225,471 or Sumita et al. 5,213,736.
6. Wessling discloses metal powders or fibers in claim 1 and polyamide/polyoxymethylene in claim 2. Tajima et al. might not teach the composition of claim 3, but they do teach the composition of claim 2. Polyacetal (polyoxymethylene) is shown in claims 1, 5 and 6. Sumita et al. recite PMMA in column 5, line 34. As far as applicants' argument concerning selecting polymer pairs by surface tension difference is concerned, there is no mention in the claims that the polymer pairs have to be selected by surface tension difference. The polymers have to be selected such a way that after the selection the difference in surface tension has to more than 2 dynes/cm, but whether the pairs are initially selected by color, smell or texture is completely immaterial. The rejections are maintained.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
